

ORDINANCE NO. 2007-009

An ordinance to amend the Business License Ordinance, dated April 14, 1992, and further amended July 15, 1997, November 21, 2000 and November 1, 2005. This amendment establishes a fine for operating a business without procuring a business license.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE TOWN COUNCIL OF INDIAN SPRINGS VILLAGE, ALABAMA, AS FOLLOWS:

Section 11. Unlawful to do business before obtaining licenses.

FROM: It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in any business, vocation, occupation, profession in the Town of Indian Springs Village or within the police jurisdiction without having first procured a license therefore and each day during which said business, vocation, occupation or profession is so engaged shall constitute a separate violation of this ordinance. Engaging in a business, vocation, occupation or profession shall include any offer to sell, any solicitation of orders for sale, or any offering of services, whether or not the same shall result in a sale or the furnishing of any service.

TO: It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in any business, vocation, occupation, profession in the Town of Indian Springs Village without having first procured a license therefore. Engaging in a business, vocation, occupation or profession shall include any offer to sell, any solicitation of orders for sale, or any offering of services, whether or not the same shall result in a sale or the furnishing of any service.

Any violation of this article shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each offense, or by imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both, at the discretion of the court trying the same, and each day such violation continues shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 13. Method of procuring injunction.

FROM: Any injunction shall be as prescribed in §§ 11-51-151-60 of the Code of Alabama 1975.

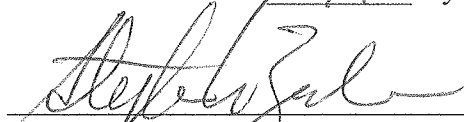

TO: Any injunction shall be as prescribed in §§ 11-51-151 through 11-51-160 of the Code Of Alabama, 1975, as amended.
